

PULSE CONFERENCE 2016

PARENTS UNITED WITH LEADERS, STUDENTS, AND EducATORS

FREE CONFERENCE FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES, THEIR FAMILIES, EDUCATORS, & MORE

February 27, 2016 at
Freedom High School

2500 Taft Vineland Road
Orlando, FL 32837

Over 50 Breakout Sessions Covering Topics Pertaining to:

- Health and Nutrition
- Mental Health
- Education K-12 for Students with Disabilities
- Early Childhood Education
- Self-Advocacy and Post-Secondary Transition; Life After High School
- School Choice and McKay Scholarship
- Community Involvement, Resources, and Recreation
- NEW!! LIFESPAN TRANSITION! Disability information for all ages and stages of life.
- Keynote Address from Patricia Moody, an adult advocate with Down Syndrome

For more information about the PULSE Conference, contact:

Jill.Morrison@ocps.net or 407/256-4212

Requests for Sign Language interpreters must be sent to Elizabeth.padilla@ocps.net by Friday, February 12th.

In-Service Points for OCPS Personnel Provided & Documented by FDLRS**

For information regarding PULSE In-Service points, email andrea.dunckel@fdlrsaction.org

